What Was and What Remains

24 FESTIVE DRUMS

Moutai Yingbin Baijiu / Jackfruit / Chrysanthemum / Hazelnut / Ginger Beer

*A rhythmic homage to tradition,
where the commanding resonance of Cantonese lion drums meets the poetic grace of the 24 solar terms.
Each drum, adorned with calligraphy,
captures the harmony between humanity and nature — an art form
seen at grand celebrations,
now reimagined in liquid poetry.*

SHADOW PUPPET

Roku Gin / Mango-infused Wine / Raspberry / Mirabelle Plum / Maraschino Cherry

*With the flickering glow of candlelight, Officer Li sculpted
a puppet into life, crafting the form of Emperor Wu of Han's beloved concubine. The illusion danced across a white cloth, mesmerising
the emperor, and thus, a new art was born. A play of light and shadow — captivating, elusive, and eternal.*

Light • Tangy

CLOISONNÉ ENAMEL

Angel's Envy Bourbon / Vodka / Rose Honey Wine / Apple / Butter

and success. During the prosperous Song dynasty, women in business adorned their hair with intricate hairpins, while savouring tea and rose cookies during business meetings.*

into poetry, a dance between heat and fluidity; likened to the spice that defines the region's culinary soul.
A moment poured with purpose.*

BOTTLE GOURD

*The Macallan Sherry Oak Cask 12Y /
Cherry Vermouth / Peychaud's Bitter*

*A cherished symbol of prosperity,
the bottle gourd is as auspicious as it is alluring. A lingering aroma of hazelnut and cucumber, the bottle gourd was revered as nature's vessel — cradling food, and water.*

Boozy • Bittersweet

THE PROSPECTS

What Could Be

CREAM OF THE CROP

Bacardi Carta Blanca Rum / Morel / Matsutake / Cordyceps Flower / Illusion

A marvel of nature, mushrooms flourish where little else can. A quiet revolution in sustainability, they thrive in small spaces, yielding abundance. With shifting climates and dwindling resources, could mushrooms become the last great harvest of our time?

A celebration of the whole, not just the parts. The skin, the pith, and the juice — each part of a fruit offers a different note, a different depth. To use it whole is to honour the essence, embracing its full potential rather than letting it slip away. What is the reward of fulfilling the present without forsaking the future?
